John Story – L-A Harley will be sponsoring Coats for Kids. 27% of Maine's residents live below poverty level. Coats for Kids will be an annual event. Imagine your old coat warming a child for the winter. The event will take place on December 10, 2010 at 7pm at Lost Valley. Food, Fun, Raffles and so much more.

If you are noticing the construction out front, the dealership is building a porch out front. It will be handicapped accessible and will be a nice place to sit, relax, during the warmer months. The reasons for this new porch was due to many people dropping their bikes on that hill, and we want to make it a place to enjoy.

Future plans around L-A Harley include the dirt area next to the dealership having trees planted, benches and grills for the public to enjoy of a sunny Sunday etc.

And the big event coming to Maine in July 2011. L-A Harley will be hosting L-A Harley, Kansas City State Barbeque Challenge. This is a national event and will be held in July at the Fryeburg Fair Grounds. The winner will represent Maine in the Nationals. There will be vendors (Cabella's), cash prizes, music and much more. L-A Harley has partnered with Hannaford and Poland Springs to bring this big event to Maine.

Meeting adjourned at 7:05pm
