From the Director

Well we sure have had some great weather. For the 29 members who went on the Mother's Day Ride, let's just say perfection. From the company, to the great ride, yummy food at the Red Barn and ending with ice cream at Fielder's Choice. This is why we are a family.

We have a great riding schedule set so keep an eye out for your weekly email blasts or check the website, the newsletter also keeps you updated monthly. If a ride is going to be cancelled please check the hotline at least one hour before the ride is to leave to make sure it was not cancelled. We have the communication available for all; you just have to keep checking.

Thank you to all those who have sold raffle tickets for the grill. We are heading down to the last two weeks before we draw the big winner. If you could please sell the tickets you have or get some tickets from Henry that would be wonderful. Whatever we sell from here on is profit for the chapter and gives us some funds to give back to ourselves. Thank you to all who have spent a Saturday at the dealership selling tickets. Your volunteerism is noticed all the time and so much appreciated.

Looking forward to a great season of riding!!
